The above index gives an insight to the contents of the various publications available in the archives of the NBPT. It includes the date of publication, together with a list of the main contents and the writer where known.

It is thought that other issues may exist, particularly of early publications and any donations to the archives will be most welcome.

It is noted that some of the scans contain errors .....these are being rescanned and reloaded.

Paper copies can be made available for a small fee to cover postage and packing. Please email the NBPT at info@nbpt.co.uk.
